1. With regard to the language, this opinion has been established on the basis of the international application in the language in which it was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item.
This opinion has been established on the basis of a translation from the original language into the following language, which is the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (under Rules 12.3 and 23.1(b)).
2. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of:
a. type of material
a sequence listing
table(s) related to the sequence listing
b. format of material in written format
in computer readable form
c. time of filing/furnishing contained in international application as filed.
filed together with the international application in computer readable form.

WRITTEN OPINION OF THE INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No. PCT/US04/39616

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43 bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims 12,25,26 Claims 1-11,13-24	YES NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims NONE Claims 1-11,13-24	YES NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims 1-26 Claims NONE	YES NO

2. Citations and explanations:

Claims 1-11, 13-24, lack novelty under PCT Article 33(2) as being anticipated by Felt et al. (6,443,988).

With respect to claims 1,2,10,11, Felt et al disclose a customizable implant configured for placement between joint surfaces formed by inserting a hollow device (10) having an aperture and a lumen; as best seen in FIG.1, into a target joint and injecting material into the hollow device to form an implant; as set forth in column 7 to column 10, lines 1-67 respectively; a second hollow device (66) advanced through a lumen of the first hollow device and extends through a lumen port located along the length of the first hollow device.

With respect to claims 2-9,13-24, Felt et al disclose all the limitations; asset forth in columns 7-10, lines 1-67 respectively.

Claims 12,25,26 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(2)-(3), because the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest a third hollow device inserted into the joint wherein the third hollow device communicating with at least one of the first and second hollow Claims 1-26 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(4), and thus meet industrial applicability because the subject matter claimed can be made or used in industry.

NOTES TO FORM PCT/ISA/220 (continued)

The letter must inclicate the differences between the claims as filed and the claims as amended. It must, in particular, indicate, in connection with each claim appearing in the international application (it being understood that identical indications concerning several claims may be grouped), whether

- (i) the claim is unchanged;
- (ii) the claim is cancelled;
- the claim is new; (iii)
- the claim replaces one or more claims as filed;
- (v) the claim is the result of the division of a claim as filed.

The following examples illustrate the manner in which amendments must be explained in the accompanying letter:

- [Where onginally there were 48 claims and after amendment of some claims there are 51]: Claims 1 to 29, 31, 32, 34, 35, 37 to 48 replaced by amended claims bearing the same numbers, claims 30, 33 and 36 unchanged; new claims 49 to 51 added.
- [Where originælly there were 15 claims and after amendment of all claims there are 11]: "Claims 1 to 15 replaced by amended claims 1 to 11."
- [Where originally there were 14 claims and the amendments consist in cancelling some claims and in adding new claims]:
  "Claims I to 6 and I4 unchanged; claims 7 to 13 cancelled; new claims 15, 16 and 17 added." or "Claims 7 to 13 cancelled; new claims 15, 16 and 17 added; all other claims unchanged."
- [Where various kinds of amendments are made]: "Claims 1-10 transhamed; claims 1-10 transhamed; claims 11 to 13, 18 and 19 cancelled; claims 14, 15 and 16 replaced by amended claims 1-10 transhamed claims 15, 16 and 17; new claims 20 and 21 added."

"Statement under Article 19(1)" (Rule 46.4)

The amendments may be accompanied by a statement explanning the amendments and indicating any impact that such amendments might have on the description and the drawings (which cannot be amended under that the transfer of t Article 19(1)).

The statement will be published with the international application and the amended claims.

It must be in the Language in which the international application is to be published.

It must be brief, not exceeding 500 words if in English or if translated into English.

It should not be confused with and does not replace the letter indicating the differences between the claims as filed and as amended. It must be filed on a separate sheet and must be identified as such by a heading, preferably by using the words "Statement under Article 19(1)."

It may not contain any disparaging comments on the international search report or the relevance of citations contained in that report. Reference to citations, relevant to a given claim, contained in the international search report may be made only in connection with an amendment of that claim.

Consequence if a demand for international preliminary examination has already been filed

If at the time of filing any amendments and any accompanying statement, under Article 19, a demand for international preliminary examination has already been submatted, the applicant must preferably, at the time of filing the amendments (and any statement) with the International Bureau, also file with the International Preliminary Examining Authority a copy of such amendments (and of any statement) and, where required, a translation of such amendments for the procedure before that Authority (see Rules 55.3(a) and 62.2, first sentence). For further information, see the Notes to the demand form (PCT/IPEA/401).

Consequence with regard to translation of the international application for entry into the national phase

The applicant's attention is drawn to the fact that, upon entry into the national phase, a translation of the claims as amended under Article 19 may have to be furnished to the designated/elected Offices, instead of, or in addition to, the translation of the claims as filed.

For further details on the requirements of each designated elected Office, see the PCT Applicant's Guide, Volume II.
